

Double Dot Squash Competition Policies

We have a few policies for our tournaments and competitions to ensure that you enjoy your time competing and so that we can offer you the best possible squash competition experience.

- All individuals are expected to display a high standard of behaviour at all times as per the Squash Auckland and Squash New Zealand Code of Conducts.
- If you are entering a junior tournament your name, email address, age, club, and gender may be entered into SportyHQ for the purpose of running the tournament digitally and to enhance your tournament experience. You may receive automated emails from SportyHQ aimed at enhancing your tournament experience. These can be opted out of.
- Email addresses of junior players entered in a tournament may be entered into our monthly newsletter email list to keep them informed regarding upcoming tournaments and other opportunities they may be interested in. These emails can be opted out of.
- Email addresses may be used to email you regarding Double Dot Squash Tournaments in the future. These emails can be opted out of.
- Any withdrawal out of the tournament once entries have closed off will be charged the full entry cost. Entry close off is usually about one week before the tournament.
- No consumption/use of alcohol, non-prescription drugs, smoking, or similar substances under any circumstances is allowed by juniors when partaking in any Double Dot Squash Tournaments, at any squash club, or any squash related event or activity.
- Eyewear is compulsory for all participants in Double Dot Squash junior tournaments.
- Photographs and/or video will occasionally be taken during Double Dot Squash Tournaments and events. These photographs and videos are for the use of Double Dot Squash, and club social media pages and websites. In some tournaments there will also be a livestream operating throughout the tournament which can be viewed on our website or on YouTube. If you do not wish to be used in photographs and/or videos for any reason please let us know.

By joining and participating in any Double Dot Squash Tournament or other Double Dot Squash event you are agreeing to all the above policies unless you notify us prior. If you have any questions or concerns please send us an email at tournaments@doubledotsquash.com.
